JOINT NEGOTIATING COUNCIL CIRCULAR NO. 86

Review of Republic of Ireland Night Subsistence Allowances - w.e.f. 1 August 2002

The Joint Secretaries of the Joint Negotiating Council have agreed to the revision of the overnight subsistence allowance for the Republic of Ireland as outlined below.

The new rates are based on the Civil Service Schedule of Overnight Provision for the Republic of Ireland and take effect from 1 August 2002.

Overnight subsistence allowance covers the overnight absence of up to 24 hours. The separate NJC day subsistence allowances shall be paid in respect of the excess hours incurred after a period of 24 hours attracting night subsistence allowance has elapsed.

	Class A (Admin Officer – Chief Executive) €197	Class B (All Other Officers) €162
Dublin	(a flat rate allowance covering accommodation and meals for a 24 hour period)
Elsewhere	Actual Expenditure plus £4.00 i.e. officers may claim the actual cost (supported by receipts) of bed, breakfast, lunch and dinner plus an allowance of £4.00 towards the cost of travel between hotel and detached duty station.

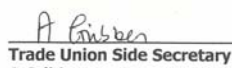

In addition, the overseas personal expenses allowance of £5.15 may be claimed for each 24 hour period for which night subsistence allowance is payable.
